Introducing The Montana: This executive ranch home is a unique design crafted to meet the desires of modern homeowners. It features a modern farmhouse exterior with stone accents, vertical siding, and metal roof highlights. Inside, a grand cathedral ceiling stretches from the foyer to the dining area, flanked by a family room with a stone fireplace and a stunning kitchen with built-in appliances. A covered porch offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. The master suite includes a luxurious bathroom with a centerpiece tub, while a second bedroom suite, conveniently located near the garage, is perfect for guests and growing families alike.
